a little about me...

I was born in Colorado and lived there until I graduated from college in 2002 with a Bachelor's of Art in Journalism. I moved to Las Vegas, where I earned my Master's degree in Elementary Education in 2005. I have also earned my administrative certificate as well as completed all my courses for my Decorate in Educational Leadership.

I have been a teacher since 2004. In all those years I have taught 5th grade for 15 of those years. Other grades I taught were 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 6th.
