

Jan Courlas

Jan Courlas has been on the GHS Board of Trustees since 2009. Jan is a long-time St. John resident who first visited Cinnamon Bay Campground with her husband in 1974 before permanently settling on island in Coral Bay with their two daughters nearly 25 years ago. Jan is passionate about education, believing it an important common element that will carry our community forward. Jan is a former banker and business owner and she currently works as a real estate broker with USVI Sotheby's International Realty. She loves traveling, especially to see her grandsons in Brooklyn and stateside family.
