

Gershwin Sprauve

Gershwin Sprauve is a highly respected businessman with an extensive professional background and roots in the territory that go back many generations. He's worked with numerous notable businesses and organizations in the territory. He served as corporate secretary and chief operating officer with the West Indian Company Limited for 16 years, and he currently holds the title of president and chief executive officer of Lockhart Realty Inc. The island of St. John is near and dear to his heart due to his family lineage.