

Andrew Rutnik

Andy Rutnik has been a full-time St. John resident since 1969 and is an original founder of Pine Peace School. He and his wife, Janet Cook-Rutnik, raised three children on island and have four grandchildren. Andy has a long history in the Virgin Islands as a businessman and he's known for his activity in the public service sector. He's served in central government and on government boards, and has been a member of several nonprofit boards as well. Andy currently serves as advisor to Gov. Albert Bryan Jr.
