

Rich Emmett, Vice President

---

Rich started visiting St. John in the mid-1980s and bought a home here in 2013. He practiced law for about a decade before working as general counsel for various restaurant companies for 28 years. Rich believes strongly in GHS's mission and says he recognizes the school's importance to the island. He values GHS's focus on academics and experiential learning.