

David McCay

---

David McCay is a St. John property owner whose passion for education fueled his desire to join Giffit Hill School's board of trustees. A pharmacist by training who worked in that field for 20 years, David is now a self-described “serial entrepreneur” who's currently running a software company in his home state of Colorado. David's business knowledge is an asset to the board.