

Susan Crane

---

Susan Crane has served on the Board of Trustees since 2018. She was a professor of English and European literature at St. Olaf College, Rutgers University, and Columbia University until retiring in 2017. Her academic administrative experience includes directing two study-abroad programs in Florence, Italy, developing a lower school language preservation program in Limón, Costa Rica, and serving as Executive Director of the New Chaucer Society, a 700-member organization for upper school and university teachers.