

Nancy Coxe Batten

Nancy Batten came to St. John with a captain's license and a passion for scuba diving. She first joined Giffit Hill School as a teacher, fueled by a desire to be a part of the community. She's since earned her real estate license and works with Cruz Bay Realty. She sees Giffit Hill as "the community school." Her children will be in pre-K and second grade this year.